Packing Hints:

*First of all, please remember that this is a fun trip and not a fashion show, so only take the essentials. Believe me, you will see some sights, and some of these may not be pretty.

*When picking out clothes to take with you, try to take things that will mix and match.

*Space in these cabins are very limited, so try to utilize the space that is there. Try to take suitcases that will fold or slide under the beds.

*If you have hanging clothes, get together with your roommates and maybe share a hanging bag.

*Irons are NOT allowed in the cabins, so take clothes that will not wrinkle bad.

*Get with your roommates and try to share things that everyone will need: shampoo, hairdryers, etc.

*Those going shopping downtown comfortable walking shoes are a MUST. Maybe even a hat!!

DO NOT LEAVE HOME WITHOUT:

Sunscreen

Camera—extra batteries and media card/film

$$ for onboard expenses, souvenirs in Mexico and excursion
