Portfolio Development: 2D Design Honors

01093200

Credit 1 weighted
Grade Level 11-12
Prerequisite 70 or above in 2D Studio Art 3 Honors; Teacher Approval

This is an advanced, directed individual study course in which students develop a portfolio showing a body of their own work that visually explores a particular area(s) of artistic concern. Students will work in the areas of drawing, painting, printmaking, mixed media, digital photography, and/or new media and technologies that demonstrate an understanding of design principles as applied to a 2-dimensional or 3-dimensional surface. The students' portfolios should show personal vision and artistic growth over time, mastery of visual art skills and techniques, and evidence of sophisticated analytical and problem-solving skills based on their structural, historical, and cultural knowledge. Students are self-directed and display readiness for high levels of critical thinking, research, conceptual thinking, and creative risk-taking. Art Fee: $25.00
